

Summer Learning Opportunity to Support Young Children with Disabilities and their Families

The University of Connecticut Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD) is hosting a master class on the knowledge and skills needed to implement effective early childhood programs to meet the needs of all. Please join us for this exciting training opportunity.

UConn
UNIVERSITY CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Paraprofessionals Supporting Young Children in Early Childhood Classrooms

July 31 - August 1, 2018 / 9:00am – 3:00pm

Or

August 21 - 22, 2018 / 9:00am – 3:00pm

Fee: $50.00

This two day training will support paraprofessionals working in preschool classrooms to build their knowledge of the essential elements of early childhood education. Hands on activities and discussions will focus on topics including how children learn, the importance of play, and building positive relationships with children.

Please register for this training at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/ECParaTraining>

All trainings will be held at the University of Connecticut
Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities

270 Farmington Avenue The Exchange - Suite 181, Farmington, CT

Questions – please contact Christine Jozef at 860-679-1595 or jozef@uchc.edu

If you require an accommodation to participate in this event, please contact our office at least 5 days in advance of this training. Recognizing that employees and visitors to our offices may have sensitivity or allergic reactions to various fragrant products, the Connecticut UCEDD is a fragrance-free workplace.